Japanese Patent Office
Introduction of an Accelerated Examination and Accelerated Appeal Examination System for Working-Related Patent (or Utility Model) Applications

Note for Foreign Applicants

1. The Japanese Patent office has decided, after long consideration, to introduce, through the administrative operation of the Patent Law and the Utility Model Law, an accelerated examination and accelerated appeal examination system for working-related patent (or utility model) applications, pursuant to the following basic polices:

(1) A part of the examination capability shall be allocated for accelerated examination and Accelerated appeal examination.

(2) The accelerated examination and accelerated appeal examination system shall initially begin on a test basis. The requirements and applications to which the accelerated examination and appeal examination are applied shall be reviewed, if necessary, taking into consideration the situation following the initial test period.

(3) Applicants shall be requested to submit the documents necessary for accelerated examination and accelerated appeal examination, such as the prior art search report and the comparison with prior art, that justify the accelerated procedure.

(4) Applicants shall be requested strictly to select requests for accelerated examination or accelerated appeal examination in order to attain fully the purpose of that system.

2. The acceptance of receipt by the Japanese Patent Office of the Explanation of Circumstances Concerning Accelerated Examination or Accelerated Appeal Examination for working-related patent (or utility model) applications shall commence on February 1, 1986.

3. The present text introduces the information that should be fully understood by foreign applicants who wish to make use of the above-mentioned system. Reference is made to the related Section of the Japanese Patent (or Utility Model) Law (Section 8):

(Patent administrator for residents abroad)

8. — (1) A person who has neither his domicile nor residence (nor, in the case of a legal entity, its establishment) in Japan (hereinafter referred to as "resident abroad") may not, except where a request for registration under subsection (3) is filed or as otherwise prescribed by Cabinet Order, proceed before the Office or institute a suit against any measure taken by an administrative agency in accordance with this Law or an order or ordinance thereunder, except through his representative with respect to his patent who has his domicile or residence in Japan (hereinafter referred to as "patent administrator").

(2) The patent administrator shall, in addition to the powers specially conferred on him, represent the principal in all procedures and in a suit instituted against measures taken by an administrative agency in accordance with this Law or an order or ordinance thereunder.

(3) Where a resident abroad is a patentee or has a registered right relating to a patent, the appointment or change of his patent administrator, the power of attorney or the extinguishment thereof shall not be effective against any third person unless it is registered.

4. Foreign applicants who submit the "Explanation of Circumstances Concerning Accelerated Examination or Accelerated Appeal Examination" for working-related patent (or utility model) applications shall proceed before the Japanese Patent Office in writing, in Japanese, through patent agents who have their domicile or residence in Japan.

5. The Guideline attached as an Appendix hereto should be fully reviewed by foreign applicants. The notes and italics appear especially for foreign applicants and are not contained in the original text of the Guideline.

6. The Guideline provides information necessary to patent agents who proceed before the Japanese Patent Office on behalf of foreign applicants. Therefore, foreign applicants are requested to consult fully with patent agents who have their domicile or residence in Japan and are familiar with such information.

Introduction

The Japanese Patent Office is presently working on the promotion of comprehensive measures from a long-term perspective, represented by the following four major items designed to shorten the period of examination and appeal examination in order to deal with a greater number of pending applications:

(1) building up of a so-called "paperless system";
(2) guiding cooperation to improve patent management in domestic corporations;
(3) reformation of the patent system; and
(4) improvement in examination capacity.

As an immediate measure meeting applicants' needs before the establishment of such comprehensive measures, the accelerated examination and appeal examination system will be adopted in respect of working-related applications. The intention is to minimize the adverse effects that could accompany a delay in examination and appeal examination.

In introducing the accelerated examination and appeal examination system, however, a part of the examination capability will be allocated for accelerated examination and appeal examination with due regard to the effect on applications not eligible for accelerated examination and appeal examination. For that reason, the system will be put in practice as a test at the initial stage under certain conditions limiting the applicable objectives to working-related applications only. The accelerated appeal examination system will also be applied, for the time being, only to those applications of particular urgency among working-related applications in view of the general importance of appeal cases.

From such points of view, applicants or patent agents concerned will be requested to submit the information necessary to justify accelerated examination and appeal examination for the purpose of attaining the goal of the accelerated procedure. At the same time, they will be requested also to select strictly such working-related applications as they really wish to be dealt with in an accelerated manner in order that the purpose of accelerated examination and appeal examination will fully be realized.

II. Accelerated Examination System

1. Accelerated Examination

(1) Applications eligible for accelerated examination.

The Japanese Patent Office may apply accelerated examination to patent (or utility model) applications that satisfy all the conditions mentioned below:

(a) a patent (or utility model) application for an invention that the applicant or one who has been granted a license*1 (licensee) from the applicant in respect of the invention has already worked or the working*2 of which has been scheduled to start by the applicant or his licensee within a period no longer than six months from the date of submission of "Explanation of Circumstances Concerning Accelerated Examination";

(b) examination by an examiner has not yet started;

(c) request for examination has already been made.

(2) Accelerated examination procedures.

(a) When the "Explanation of Circumstances Concerning Accelerated Examination" is submitted to the Patent Office, the Directors of the corresponding examination division shall decide whether or not the application is eligible for accelerated examination. The result of selection shall not be notified in writing.

(b) An examiner shall start promptly the examination of applications selected by the Directors as eligible for accelerated examination and shall speed up the entire examination process to the final decision, including the opposition procedure, without delay.

In the event, however, that the "Explanation of Circumstances Concerning Accelerated Examination" is submitted before the laying-open of applications for public inspection ("Kokai Koho"), the process shall be started promptly after the said laying-open of applications.

(c) As for the description for the state of working under the "Explanation of Circumstances Concerning Accelerated Examination", confirmation of the state of working by hearing or confirmation by field survey may be made if subsequently regarded as necessary.

[Note 1] The hearing shall not be open.

(3) Public access to documents.

The "Explanation of Circumstances Concerning Accelerated Examination" shall be open to public access as in the case of other application documents, regardless of the results of selection.

(4) Indication in the official publication ("Kokoku Koho").

Working-related applications concerning which publication is made following the accelerated examination procedure shall be so indicated in the official publication as follows:

(a) indication with certain mark in the table of contents; and

(b) indication of "Application through accelerated examination", in the official publication of patent (or utility model) applications.

2. Submission Procedures—Submission of "Explanation of Circumstances Concerning Accelerated Examination"

(1) Submitter.

A submitter of the "Explanation of Circumstances Concerning Accelerated Examination" for a working-related application eligible for accelerated examination shall be restricted to the applicant of the application concerned.

(2) Submission of documents.

Documents requesting accelerated examination shall either be submitted directly to the receiving window (Second Application Division, Japanese Patent Office; 3-1, Kasumigaseki 1-chome, Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo, Japan) or mailed to the Director General, Japanese Patent Office (4-3, Kasumigaseki 3-chome, Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo 100, Japan) with indication of "Explanation of Circumstances Concerning Accelerated Examination" on the envelope.

[Note 2] The contents of this matter relate only to patent agents who have their domicile or residence in Japan.

(3) Period of submission.

The "Explanation of Circumstances Concerning Accelerated Examination" may be submitted at any time after the request for examination has been made.

(4) Fee.

No fee shall be charged for the submission of the "Explanation of Circumstances Concerning Accelerated Examination".

(5) Documents to be submitted.

Documents concerning accelerated examination (the "Explanation of Circumstances Concerning Accelerated Examination") shall be submitted separately for each application requesting accelerated examination. (See II.3, below, for the preparation of the "Explanation of Circumstances Concerning Accelerated Examination".) The said submitted documents shall not be returned after receipt by the Patent Office.

(2) "Patented invention" in this Law means an invention for which a patent has been granted.

(3) "Working" of an invention in this Law means the following acts:

(4) Prior art investigation and comparison with prior art.

On submitting the "Explanation of Circumstances Concerning Accelerated Examination", a description of the prior art investigation and comparison with prior art is requested to attain the objectives of accelerated examination. The prior art investigation and comparison with prior art should preferably be made in the manner in (a) through (e), below.

(a) Documents to be investigated

(i) The documents to be investigated shall cover at least Japanese unexamined publications, i.e., "Kokai Koho" (including the secondary publication of international applications in Japanese, i.e., "Kohyo Koho").

If, however, the submitter is a foreign applicant, the investigation of Japanese unexamined publications ("Kokai Koho") may be substituted by patent documents written in English, French or German.

(ii) Depending on the particularity of the art, "specified publications" as shown in the attached material may be designated as documents to be investigated. If, however, the submitter is a foreign applicant, such publications as are in Japanese may be exempted from investigation.

[Note 9] Foreign applicants are requested to investigate patent documents in any of the foreign language listed in (a)(i), above, from the viewpoint of Section 29(2) of the Patent Law and Section 3(2) of the Utility Model Law.

(Patentability of inventions)

29.—(1) Any person who has made an invention which is industrially applicable may obtain a patent therefor, except in the case of the following inventions:

(i) inventions which were publicly known in Japan prior to the filing of the patent application;
(ii) inventions which were publicly worked in Japan prior to the filing of the patent application;
(iii) inventions which were described in a publication distributed in Japan or elsewhere prior to the filing of the patent application.

(2) Where an invention could easily have been made, prior to the filing of the patent application, by a person with ordinary skill in the art to which the invention pertains, on the basis of an invention or inventions referred to in any of the paragraphs of subsection (1), a patent shall not be granted for such an invention notwithstanding subsection (1).

(Registrability of utility models)

3.—(1) Any person who has made a device which is industrially applicable and which relates to the shape or construction of articles or a combination of articles may obtain a utility model registration therefor, except in the case of the following devices:

(i) devices which were publicly known in Japan prior to the filing of the utility model application;
(ii) devices which were publicly worked in Japan prior to the filing of the utility model application;
(iii) devices which were described in a publication distributed in Japan or elsewhere prior to the filing of the utility model application.

(2) Where a device could very easily have been made, prior to the filing of the utility model application by a person with ordinary skill in the art to which the device pertains, on the basis of a device or devices referred to in any of the paragraphs of subsection (1), a utility model registration shall not be granted for such a device notwithstanding subsection (1).

(b) Extent of investigation. If Japanese unexamined publications are investigated, the extent of investigation shall cover the fields of art at least centered around the IPC symbol or symbols consisting of the invention information (the IPC symbol or symbols preceding double oblique strokes) appearing in the publication of the unexamined application concerned ("Kokai Koho"). In that case, the period of investigation shall extend from 1971 to the date of issue of the publication of the unexamined application concerned ("Kokai Koho").

[Note 11] Foreign applicants are not requested to do so, unless they so wish.

(c) Results of investigation.

(i) In the space for results of investigation, the titles of related documents obtained as a result of the prior art investigation shall be described in the manner corresponding to the instruction shown in 42.31A of the "Examination Manual for Patents and Utility Models" compiled by the Patent Office. If no related document has been found after the prior art investigation, documents showing the general state of the art as technical background to the application may be described.

In the space for results of investigation, the names of institutions and services, etc., if used, may be entered.

(ii) Copies of prior art documents shall be attached.
(iii) For prior art documents written in a foreign language, the necessary part shall be indicated on a copy of the document and the translation thereof that is submitted. In the case of English documents, a translation may be omitted.
(iv) In the place of a prior art investigation by a foreign applicant, documents cited as results of investigations by examining patent offices or intergovernmental organizations or by International Searching Authorities pursuant to the PCT may be entered in the space for the results of investigation. In the place of a prior art investigation by a domestic applicant, documents cited as results of investigations by International Searching Authorities pursuant to the PCT or by the European Patent Office (EPO) may be entered in the space for the results of investigation. In those cases, the examining patent office or organization that made such investigation shall also be entered.
(v) When submitting the "Explanation of Circumstances Concerning Accelerated Examination" before the laying-open of an application, the IPC symbols which define the fields of art, the investigation of which fields the applicant has made in advance, shall be entered in the space for the result of the prior art investigation, since an additional prior art investigation may become necessary so as to cover all the fields of art defined by the invention information symbols of the IPC appearing in the publication of the unexamined application concerned ("Kokai Koho").

[Note 12] Foreign applicants are not requested to do so regarding paragraph (v), above, unless they so wish.

(d) Comparison with prior art.

In the space for comparison with prior art, a concrete and concise description of different points holding the better part of inventions claimed in the patent (or utility model) application and its effect should be given, compared with the prior art described in the listed documents in the light of Sections 29(1) and (2) and 29*bis* of the Patent Law and Sections 3(1) and (2) and 3*bis* of the Utility Model Law. In this case, due consideration should also be given to the completeness of the specification in the light of Section 36 of the Patent Law and Section 5 of the Utility Model Law. The above description should be prepared, for example, in the same manner as in preparing a written argument against the examiner's reasons for refusal.

If it does not seem possible to maintain patentability without amendment of the specification, a draft amendment of the specification shall be presented and the comparison with prior art should be made on the basis of that draft.

If the specification includes a detailed comparison with prior art in the light of Section 29(1) and (2) of the Patent Law and Section 3(1) and (2) of the Utility Model Law, the description in the space for comparison with prior art may be replaced by an indication of the appropriate part of the specification. However, the prior art investigation and comparison with prior art in the light of Section 29*bis* of the Patent Law and Section 3*bis* of the Utility Model Law shall be described.

[Note 13] Foreign applicants are not requested to investigate from the viewpoint of Section 29*bis* of the Patent Law or Section 3*bis* of the Utility Model Law.

(e) Other particulars, if necessary.

An applicant that is a small or medium enterprise or an individual may be exempted from the investigation of "specified publications" mentioned in subparagraph (a)(ii), above, and from attachment of copies of prior art documents mentioned in subparagraph (c)(ii), above. If an applicant that is a small or medium enterprise or an individual omits the investigation of "specified publications" and the attachment of copies as mentioned above, the applicant shall state in the space for "Other particulars, if necessary" the fact that the applicant is a small or medium enterprise as provided for in the Small and Medium Enterprise Basic Law or an individual.

For a small or medium enterprise, it is requested to state the type of small or medium enterprise as shown in the following table and also to indicate whether the number of employees and capital fall with the number of employees and capital provided for in the said Law.

III. Accelerated Appeal Examination System

1. Accelerated Appeal Examination

The procedures of accelerated examination shall apply correspon dingly to accelerated appeal examination. The procedures that are particularly different are hereinafter introduc ed.

(1) Appeal cases eligible for accelerated appeal examination.

The Japanese Patent Office may apply accelerated appeal examination to appeal cases concerning patent (or utility model) applications satisfying all the conditions as specified below:

(a) Where the appeal case concerns a patent (or utility model) application for an invention which the demandant or one who has been granted a license*4 (licensee) in respect of that invention from the demandant has already worked or the working*5 of which has been scheduled to start by the demandant or his licensee within a period of no longer than six months from the date of submission of the "Explanation of Circumstances Concerning Accelerated Appeal Examination" and for which the granting of a patent is urgently required by the reason of (i) or (ii), below:

(i) in the case where any third party, without any consent of the demandant, has already worked the invention or in the case where the working of that invention has been scheduled to start by the third party without any prior consent of the demandant;
(ii) in the case where opposition to the grant of the patent was filed at the examination stage.

(b) When an appeal examination by a collegial body in charge has not yet commenced (in such an appeal case, since a patent (or utility model) application has proceeded again to the stage of appeal examination after reconsideration by the former examiner under Section 161*bis* of the Patent Law, appeal examination for the said case shall be deemed not to have started);

(c) Where the appeal case is against examiner's decision of refusal.

[Note 15] Accelerated appeal examination applies both to appeal cases proceeding to the appeal stage after the final decision of refusal by an examiner through accelerated examination and appeal cases for which demands for appeals have already been filed.

(2) Accelerated appeal examination procedures.

(a) When the "Explanation of Circumstances Concerning Accelerated Appeal Examination" is submitted to the Patent Office, the head of appeal examiner's group (appeal examiner-in-chief) of the corresponding appeal examiner's group shall decide whether or not the appeal case is eligible for accelerated appeal examination. The results of the selection shall not be notified in writing.

(b) A collegial body in charge shall promptly commence the examination of the appeal case as a case eligible for accelerated appeal examination by the head of appeal examiner's group and shall speed up the entire appeal examination process to the final decision, including the opposition procedure, without delay.

(c) As for descriptions in the space for the state of working, state of urgency, allegations concerning the completeness of the specification and allegations against the reasons for the examiner's refusal of the "Explanation of Circumstances Concerning Accelerated Appeal Examination", a request for the submission of materials, for a hearing or for suitable measures may be made if necessary.

[Note 16] Submitted documents and details of hearings are not open.

(3) Public access to documents.

The "Explanation of Circumstances Concerning Accelerated Appeal Examination" shall be open to public access as in the case of other appeal case documents, regardless of the results of selection.

Where a state of urgency is explained by this case, clarification of (A) the third party, (B) the working-related act by any third party and (C) the relation between the working-related act and the inventions claimed in the application concerned is required in principle. Where the third party has scheduled to start in an apparent manner the working of inventions claimed in the application concerned, clarification of the state of the schedule for working is required by means of attaching objective documents or other reliable materials.

A "third party" means any party other than the demandant in the appeal case and his licensee.

(b) When opposition to the grant of patent was filed in the stage of examination.

(5) Allegations.

Since it is necessary for an efficient accelerated appeal examination that the specification be complete and that the grounds against the reasons for refusal be based on the detailed description in the specificaiton, the following allegations are requested to be described for clarifying those matters.

(i) Allegation concerning the completeness of specification. In the space for "Allegation concerning the complet eness of the specification", it shall be alleged that the explanation is complete in the following respects:

(a) It shall be explained, according to "the itemized descriptions of patent (or utility model) specification" specified in the Regulations (Note 14 to Form No. 16 of the Regulations under the Patent Law and Note 13 to Form No. 3 of the Regulations under the Utility Model Law), for example, how the purpose, constitution and effects of the invention (or utility model) are clearly described in the space for a detailed explanation of the invention:

[Note 21] Example where itemized description is preferable:

Detailed Description of the Invention

(a) Industrial Field of Utilization
(b) Prior Art

(b) It shall be explained how the constitution of the claimed invention (or utility model) is accurately described in the space for a detailed explanation of the invention.

The explanations in (a) and (b), above, may be omitted where the patent (or utility model) application has been published in the examination stage in the official publication ("Kokoku Koho").

(ii) Allegation against examiner's reasons for refusal. In the space for "Allegation against examiner's reasons for refusal", the grounds against the examiner's reasons for refusal shall be concretely alleged indicating the duly corresponding described parts in the specification.

IMPROVEMENTS IN SERVICES

- File Information Unit — At a recent users meeting, a concern was raised regarding the inability of the File Information Unit (FIU) to override erroneous location data in the PALM system when ordering a patent or abandoned file from the Eads Street Repository. An example of this situation would be when a customer requests a particular file and the PALM system indicates that the file is in one of the Patent Examining Groups. The customer then goes to the Group to request access to the file, but discovers the file is not in the Group. He/she would return to the FIU and submit a charge slip that would have to be hand carried to the Repository.

  A change to the PALM software now allows the FIU to override the PALM system and electronically order the file from the Repository. The printout at the Repository also identifies this request as a priority to ensure special handling of the request.

  This new procedure will reduce the amount of time and effort required to order a file when the PALM system indicates an incorrect location.

- Improvements — At the suggestion of a member of the Patent, Trademark and Copyright Law Section of the Bar Association of the District of Columbia, a check off box is being added to the PTOL–85c Issue Fee Transmittal to indicate authority to charge deficiencies in fees to a deposit account. This will avoid the issuance of Notices of Abandonment when the issue fee amount due is not satisfied by the fee remittance. It will also avoid delays in responding to associated requests for advanced patent order or assignment recordation.

HELPFUL HINTS FROM THE PTO

- Response to Final Rejection — Expedited Processing and Reply by PTO

  Many amendments or responses after Final Rejection are filed without the proper markings needed to ensure the "quick reply" benefits of the Expedited Procedure.

  In view of the enormous volume of mail and papers received in the PTO each day, it is essential that these special amendments or responses be clearly and distinctly marked so that the staff in the Mail Room, Finance Branch, and Patent Examining Corps Clerical Sections can readily identify them as After Final (AF) papers. When properly marked, they receive immediate attention and special handling throughout the PTO.

  The marking requirements are as follows:

1. Mark the mailing envelope "BOX AF" in the lower left corner.
2. Mark the paper, in the upper right portion:

"RESPONSE UNDER 37 CFR 1.116
EXPEDITED PROCEDURE
EXAMINING GROUP (Insert Group Number)".

3. Do not mail After Final (AF) papers and other, non-AF, papers in the same envelope.
4. If an AF paper is being hand-carried to an Examining Group (instead of mailing to Box AF), the paper should be marked:

"RESPONSE UNDER 37 CFR 1.116
EXPEDITED PROCEDURE
EXAMINING GROUP (Insert Group Number)".

5. Use a bright color felt point marker to make the markings prominent.
6. It would be helpful to print "AF" in bright color at the top of all After Final responses or amendments.

Applicants are encouraged to use this expedited procedure in order to facilitate rapid PTO processing and reply to amendments and responses after Final Rejection.

Director, Group 350

- Assignments — When requesting correction or updating of a previously recorded patent or trademark assignment document, providing the reel and frame number of that document to the Assignment Branch will greatly expedite the recording process.
  To ensure the correct printing of ownership information on a Trademark Registration at issue date, provide the Trademark Office examining attorney with the reel and frame number of the appropriate assignment document as soon as you are notified of it.

- File Wrapper Continuation — To expedite processing under Rule 1.62, make certain that the parent serial number cited in the transmittal letter is the correct serial number.

- Continuation or Divisional Application — When filing under Rule 1.60 retain at least one original claim from the parent application to assure a complete application. Only amendments reducing the number of claims or adding a reference to the prior application (Rule 1.78 (a)) will be entered, upon request, before calculating the filing fee and granting the filing date. Reminder: Applicant cannot file a CIP (continuation-in-part) under Rule 1.60.

- Petition for License — Rule 5.12 states that "filing of an application for patent for inventions made in the United States will be considered to include a petition for license under 35 U.S.C. 184 for the subject of the application. The filing receipt will indicate a license is granted". There is no need to request a corrected filing receipt deleting the words "License Granted". Its intent is to provide the necessary acknowledgement for those filing abroad.

For the prior four items direct questions to:

Peggy Dubose, Manager
Examining Services Division
(703) 557-3256

- PTO Special Boxes — The special box numbers have been established to allow forwarding of particular types of mail to the appropriate areas as quickly as possible. Such mail is forwarded directly to the appropriate area without being opened. Therefore, if any documents other than the specified type identified for each box are addressed to that box, they will be delayed in reaching the appropriate area for which they were intended.
  The following special boxes should be used only for theirpurpose.

Reference Collections of U.S. Patents Available for Public Use in Patent Depository Libraries

The following libraries, designated as Patent Depository Libraries, receive current issues of U.S. Patents and maintain collections of earlier issued patents. The scope of these collections varies from library to library, ranging from patents of only recent years to all or most of the patents issued since 1790.

These patent collections are open to public use and each of the Patent Depository Libraries, in addition, offers the publications of the U.S. Patent Classification System (e.g. The Manual of Classification, Index to the U.S. Patent Classification, Classification Definitions, etc.) and provides technical staff assistance in their use to aid the public in gaining effective access to information contained in patents. With one exception, as noted in the table following, the collections are organized in patent number sequence.

Facilities for making paper copies from either microfilm in reader-printers or from the bound volumes in paper-to-paper copies are generally provided for a fee.

Owing to variations in the scope of patent collections among the Patent Depository Libraries and in their hours of service to the public, anyone contemplating use of the patents at a particular library is advised to contact that library, in advance, about its collection and hours, so as to avert possible inconvenience.

MARKS PUBLISHED FOR OPPOSITION

The following marks are published in compliance with section 12(a) of the Trademark Act of 1946. Applications for the registration of marks in more than one class have been filed as provided in section 30 of said act as amended by Public Law 772, 87th Congress, approved Oct. 9, 1962, 76 Stat. 769. Opposition under section 13 may be filed within thirty days of the date of this publication. See rules 2.101 to 2.105.

A separate fee of two hundred dollars for opposing each mark in each class must accompany the opposition.

SECTION 1.—INTERNATIONAL CLASSIFICATION

The short titles associated below with the international class numbers are terms designed merely for quick identification and are not an official part of the international classification. The full names of international classes are given in section 6.1 of the trademark rules of practice.

The designation "U.S. Cl." appearing in this section refers to the U.S. class in effect prior to Sep. 1, 1973 rather than the international class which applies to applications filed on or after that date. For adoption of international classification see notice in the OFFICIAL GAZETTE of Jun. 26, 1973 (911 O.G. TM 210).

SECTION 1.—INTERNATIONAL CLASSIFICATION

The short titles associated below with the international class numbers are terms designed merely for quick identification and are not an official part of the international classification. The full names of international classes are given in section 6.1 of the trademark rules of practice.

The designation "U.S. Cl." appearing in this section refers to the U.S. class in effect prior to Sep. 1, 1973 rather than the international class which applies to applications filed on or after that date. For adoption of international classification see notice in the OFFICIAL GAZETTE of Jun. 26, 1973 (911 O.G. TM 210).

SECTION 2.—INTERNATIONAL CLASSIFICATION

The short titles associated below with the international class numbers are terms designed merely for quick identification and are not an official part of the international classification. The full names of international classes are given in section 6.1 of the trademark rules of practice.

The designation "U.S. Cl." appearing in this section refers to the U.S. class in effect prior to Sep. 1, 1973 rather than the international class which applies to applications filed on or after that date.
